

4 Key Elements of my Ethical Template

①

Honesty

Accuracy and Truth in everything you do gains the confidence from those around you. Honesty is essential for building the template of trust. It represents ownership and accountability. I continue my committed to honesty.

②

Respect

We are all seeds with growth and nutrients from around the world. The different fabrics of ideas that we are made of is valued deeply. I honor who you are and where you are.

③

Commitment

Saying and doing what you mean are elements that continues beyond you. Commitment to the power of your word is vital for lasting relationships.

④

Integrity

The pillars of my ethics are deeply rooted in who I am and how I was guided from my beginnings. These commitments to myself and how I am presented to the world are unwavering.

In a profession where the stakes are high, my core beliefs of Honesty, Respect, Commitment and Integrity guide me through and provide direction with the toughest challenges.

Thomas Rolland-Morales, RN.